 2 and are hopeful that they will be served by November 22, 2021, pursuant to which
 3 Plaintiffs have granted an extension to respond. The Plaintiff respectfully submits
 4 this extension of time to respond is evident of a showing of good cause to grant an
 5 extension to amend pleadings or add parties within the 21 day time frame of the 23 expert witnesses.

24 WHY REMAINING DISCOVERY HAS NOT BEEN COMPLETED

25 The parties aver, pursuant to LR 26-3, that good cause exists for the following requested
 26 extension. This Request for an extension of time is not sought for any improper purpose or other
 27 purpose of delay. Rather, it is sought by the parties solely for the purpose of allowing sufficient
 28 time to conduct discovery to develop their respective cases in chief.

The parties have been diligently moving the case forward. They have been participating in substantive discovery, including exchanging their initial lists of witnesses and documents and supplements thereto, and propounding written discovery. To ensure sufficient time is allotted for party depositions and expert designations, the parties maintain that the current discovery deadlines must be extended.

Extension or Modification of The Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order. LR 26-3 governs modifications or extension of the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order. Any stipulation or motion to extend or modify that Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order must be made no later than twenty-one (21) days before the expiration of the subject deadline (unless a showing of good cause is present and must comply fully with LR 26-3.

This is the first request for extension of time in this matter. The parties respectfully submit that the reasons set forth above constitute compelling reasons for the short extension. The parties further submit the extension of time to respond to written discovery is a showing of good cause as to why the deadline to amend pleadings or add parties should be extended since the current deadline is November 18, 2021.

The parties further submit the extension of time to respond to written discovery is a showing of good cause as to why the deadline to amend pleadings or add parties should be extended since the current deadline is November 18, 2021.
